

PITCHFORK

*"Go placidly amid the noise and haste,
and remember what peace there may be in silence.
As far as possible without surrender,
be on good terms with all persons.*

*Speak your truth quietly and clearly,
but listen to others,
even the dull and the ignorant;
they too have their story.*

*Avoid loud and aggressive persons,
for they are vexation to the spirit.*

*If you compare yourself with others
you may become vain and bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.*

*Enjoy your achievements
as well as your plans.*

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is. Many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love, for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune, but do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

*You are a child of the universe,
no less than the trees and the stars;
you have a right to be here.*

*And whether or not
it is clear to you,
no doubt the universe
is unfolding as it should.*

*Therefore be at peace with God,
whatever you conceive Him to be,
and whatever your labors and aspirations
amid the noisy confusion of life,
keep peace with your soul.*

*With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world.
Strive to be happy.*

ALMA MATER

*Our dear ole alma mater,
With greatest love to you
we sing,
Of days happily spent
Underneath thy helping wing,
May God in care divine,
Forever bless thy spirit's flame,
And may the ones who from thee go
Forever praise thee,
Praise the name of
Avon Park High*

Foreword

From old to new . . . Avon Park High School has come a long way. The tall conservative lines of the old Avon Park High School have yielded to the low, sleek excitingly modern lines of the new Avon Park High School.

The students, the teachers, and the activities have changed little; but progressive metamorphosis is taking place to keep pace with the modernistic trend exemplified by the new school.

We of the Pitchfork Staff have attempted to give you a truly memorable picture of the new Avon Park High School, its students, its teachers, and its activities.

Girl and Boy Staters are sponsored by the American Legion and are chosen on the characteristics of leadership, citizenship, scholarship and patriotism. While at the Florida State University in Tallahassee, the delegates participate in government functions by actually holding elections. First city elections are held, then county and finally state elections. By this method the delegates are given a true picture of how a government is operated. The elected officers then take part in the operation of the government for a full day.

EXAMPLE:

*I'd rather see a sermon than to hear one any day,
I'd rather one should walk with me than merely show the way,
The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear,
Fine counsel is confusing, but examples are always clear,
And, best of all the preachers are the men who live their creeds,
For to see good put in action is what everybody needs.
I soon can learn to do it, if you'll let me see it done;
I can see your hands in action, but your tongue too fast may run,
And the lectures you deliver may be very fine and true,
But I'd rather get my lesson by observing what you do;
For I may misunderstand you and the high advice you give;
But there's no misunderstanding how you act and how you live!*

*Perhaps the hardest thing to bear
Is when all reasons fail
To help us understand just why
This sorrow must prevail
But time and cherished memories
Bring strength and hope anew
And meanwhile may it help to know
That God is there with you.*
